Dear Pastor and Church,

By the grace of God, we continue to press forward in the work He has entrusted to us. It is our prayer that this letter finds you resting securely in the care of our Almighty God, whom we love and faithfully serve. May His presence strengthen and encourage you as we labor together for the advancement of His Kingdom.

We firmly believe that your prayers are neither limited by distance nor hindered by any barrier. We remain deeply grateful to each of you for standing with us as faithful partners in the ministry.

As the day of our Lord's return approaches, may we all be found faithful in fulfilling the Great Commission given by our Lord Jesus Christ, according to His will (Matthew 28:19-20).

In His Service,
 Brother Ed
