Church Planting in Charleville-Mézières, France

August 31, 2026

Dear Supporting Friends,

One of my bad habits is to focus on negative things. Can you relate? It seems, sometimes, that life can be full of disappointment and discouragement, and this is never more evident than in church work. People are unfaithful. Spiritual pushback is a reality.

It is a battle to stay encouraged. Knowing that God still reigns, however, and is working behind the scenes is enough to keep us moving forward. In the words of an elderly boxer, "Just keep punching!" God has a way of sticking slices of encouragement into the layers of our daily lives, if we will pay attention.

Lincoln and Grant

Our son, Lincoln, finished his freshman year of Bible college in May. As I've mentioned before, he has been called to preach and is preparing for full-time ministry. God worked it out for him to come home over the summer, and he was a tremendous help to us. One of our big projects was the ordering, folding, and distributing of Gospel literature. We beat the pavement and were able to hand out over 6,000 flyers in our city! It was a great success in spite of a call or two insisting that we stop passing out "our propaganda". Please pray that God would bless the seed sown.

Teen camp went exceedingly well this summer. Participating churches have been meeting for the last ten years at a facility in Gouvy, Belgium, near the Luxembourg border. There were 90 teens and workers in attendance, and we divided into French, Spanish, and English classes to study the life of Elijah. This was Lincoln's first year as a counselor, and he loved every minute of it. He was able to head up the afternoon tournaments and helped out in other capacities as well. We had several combined services where the Holy Spirit moved through the preaching. Seven teens trusted Christ by the end of the week, and quite a few others (our son Grant included) made decisions to surrender to God's will. Several adults were also called into missions!

Camp Service

We are thankful for God's blessings over the summer and trust that He will continue working through us as we move into the fall.

In Christ,

Danny Flowers
